

This is a detailed topographic map of the Almenèches region in France. The map features the Garonne river (Garonne) flowing through the center, with several tributaries like the Dronne and the Dronne. Key locations include Almenèches, le Mesnil, le Château-d'Almenèches, le Grand Chemin, and le Château-d'Almenèches. The map also shows various smaller villages and hamlets, as well as the Garonne river and its tributaries. A red line is drawn across the map, likely indicating a specific route or boundary. The map includes a scale bar (0 to 0.4 km) and a reference to the DRIEE-IF - AESN - 2009 ©GN 2007.
